ORDER REGARDING SCHEDULE FOR JUNE 3 - JUNE 5, 2020

Oral argument for or against confirmation of the Debtors' Plan will begin on June 3, 2020, at 10:00 AM. The Debtors and Plan Proponents will have two and one half hours to begin. The court appreciates Debtors' counsel's suggestion filed earlier today (Dkt. No. 7679) to rearrange the presentation of argument by issues, but the requests by various parties and the court's planning before today prohibit that approach.

1       Attached is a tentative schedule for arguments for or 2 against confirmation.

3       Arguments by others either for or against confirmation of 4 the Plan will begin approximately forty-five (45) minutes after 5 Debtors complete their opening argument and the court takes a 6 break. Not all time estimates could be honored, and no time has 7 been scheduled for any executory contract issues, including cure
8 amounts and those dealing with indemnity and contribution
9 claims. The court is aware that Debtors wish to deal with these 10 non-cure claim matters (see Dkt. No. 7633 at 3:18-21), but the 11 number of objectors prohibit including those issues this week.
12 If necessary, a separate schedule for argument solely as to 13 those matters can be scheduled for next week.

14       The hearing set for June 4, 2020, at 9:30 AM on the motion
15 for appointment of an examiner (Dkt. No. 7568) is postponed
16 until 10:00 AM. Following that hearing and a short break, oral 17 arguments on the Plan will resume. There will be a forty-five 18 minute midday break.

19       On June 5, 2020, arguments will resume at 9:30 AM, with the 20 expectation that they will conclude by midday. After a forty-
21 five minute break, Debtors will have one and one half hours
22 for closing argument. At that point the question of whether or 23 not to confirm Debtors' Plan will be submitted for decision.

24       All parties should see the court's Order Granting Motion to 25 Exclude Testimony and Clarifying the Court's Position on 26 Admission of Exhibits (Dkt. No. 7662), regarding the disposition 27 of exhibits and objections to their admission. The court will 28 rule on objections to exhibits as part of its ruling on

1 confirmation. Parties may use a portion of their time to argue 2 about the admissibility of the exhibits if they chose but they 3 will not be allowed additional time.

4 All parties should keep in mind that the court has received 5 extensive briefing on the critical issues and has also been 6 provided proposed findings of fact and conclusion of law. The 7 purpose of oral argument is not to repeat what has already been 8 written. Instead, counsel and pro se parties should focus 9 specifically on the most critical points they wish to make,
10 avoid being repetitive, use their time efficiently, and make 11 clear their positions as to whether they want the court to (1)
12 confirm the Plan; (2) deny confirmation; or (3) confirm, but 13 subject to amendments that may be appropriate to incorporate 14 into the order confirming the Plan and without requiring re-15 solicitation of votes or conflicting in any way with the 16 deadline of AB 1054.
